

TO APPLY.....

Call or e-mail to receive an application.

Keep in mind the following:

For what will the funding be used?

How does it benefit low to moderate income people?

Three estimates for the work to be done are required.

LIFE SAFETY, CODE, AND WEATHERIZATION.....

REVOLVING LOAN FUND

Home Repairs – Daycare
Social Services – Business

Flexible loans to benefit low to moderate income citizens.

CITY OF CONCORD

41 Green Street, City Hall
Concord, NH 03301
Phone: 603-225-8510
Fax: 603-228-2701

HOME REPAIRS, SOCIAL SERVICE RENOVATIONS, CHILD CARE & BUSINESS DEVELOPMENT

City of Concord's Revolving Loan Fund

The Revolving Loan Fund provides loans to benefit Concord citizens, programs, and businesses.

Loan terms and interest rates are flexible.

Loans must benefit low to moderate income people.

RLF General Guidelines

Housing Rehabilitation

Eligible property may be either owner occupied or investor owned. The property must be located within Concord or Penacook. Assistance may be provided to eliminate conditions hazardous to health and safety and/or to make energy conservation improvements.

Social Service Facilities

Social Service organizations may apply for a loan to upgrade their facilities to meet fire, safety, energy and accessibility codes.

Child Care Programs

Child care providers may apply for a loan to develop or expand facilities and/or to meet requirements to become State licensed.

Economic Development

Loans are available to provide financial incentives to expand or attract businesses. Businesses that assist low to moderate income people obtain or retain employment are eligible.

Income Guidelines *

Family Size	Max. Household Income
	Low	Moderate
1	$26,850	$42,950
2	$30,700	$49,100
3	$34,550	$55,250
4	$38,350	$61,350
5	$41,450	$66,300

* Subject to Change

TO RECEIVE A LOAN APPLICATION, PLEASE CONTACT:

*Joia Hughes, Consultant for Community Development
City of Concord – City Hall
41 Green Street
Concord, NH 03301*

*Phone: 315-9492 or 225-8510
E-Mail:
joia@hughescdconsulting.com*